School of Spiritual Leadership Ministerial Training Denver Regional Program

When I was 18 years old, I felt an inner call to step into ministry. But I resisted that call believing it was a bad idea! My spiritual life continued to blossom in the practice and teaching of Science of Mind and Spirit, and eventually I surrendered to my inner guidance and stepped into ministerial training. My years in training anchored me in such a powerful way into ministry. I'm what you would call a "career minister." I have served in three ministries after graduating from ministerial training in 1991 at the ripe age of 27.

Each of us has a deeper, spiritual calling. Yet often times, we're uncertain what it is and can spend a lifetime searching. But something brought you to Mile Hi Church, and if you've taken the time to read this, you just might be called to enhance your spiritual journey and become a minister.

I know when I do what I love, my spirit ignites! It is with great joy that I support others in following their inner call through ministerial school. I wish the same for you.

Love and blessings,

Dr. Michelle Medrano
Dean of School of Spiritual Leadership, Denver Region
Lead Minister at Mile Hi Church, Lakewood, CO
